

SOMERSET COUNTY LIBRARY

QUARANTINE

What we made during the quarantine

Crisfield local, David Humphreys has been gardening with his grandchildren; Aubrey, Eli, Jobi, and Judah Humphreys over the quarantine. They are proud of their progress over the past several months.

Parker Brown had fun painting flowers!

Pretty needlepoint designed by Ryan Brown.

Before and after pictures of the new flower bed my husband and son built for me in March. The lilies in the lower bed came with us from Pittsburgh last summer. They came from my late father in-law's gardens. We've had them for almost 10 years.
-Janice Mekovsky

Quilted Table Runners
by Ann Smith

Pen and marker illustration by Lorna Crockett

lorna lynn

A knife made with a found antler by Justin Brown

A chest that my husband built for me
-Zuri Brown

Originally from Smith Island and now a Crisfield local, Cody Bradshaw has been repairing a boat during the pandemic. He started with fully replacing the flooring and has built a center console from scratch.

Ryan and I traded canvases. She experimented with stencils and I tried to play with texture.
-Zuri Brown

